Puerto Rico Tourism Rewards Member Excellence

Published on: April 5, 2007

More than 350 tourism industry members, including government officials and guests, gathered at the Puerto Rico Convention Center to participate in an event that recognizes top tourism facilities for their excellence and quality of products. Terestella González Denton, executive director of the Puerto Rico Tourism Company (PRTC), handed out the prizes at the Quality Awards 2007 event. González Denton also announced that one of the agency's priorities for this year will be to search for, together with the hotel industry, excellence in quality and service offered by hotel properties and tourism services within the tourism industry in Puerto Rico. Among the honored members were the Ritz Carlton on Isla Verde; the Fajardo Inn and Hotel Guajataca; LXR Luxury Resorts and Interlink; and the Horned Dorset Primavera and its manager José Babilonia.
